

As a believer, am I enjoying a living fellowship with the eternal God? If not, am I willing to humble myself and confess my sins? If I did not commit my sins in bundles, why do I try to confess them in bundles by quickly saying, “Lord Jesus, please forgive all my sins”?

On the contrary, let us keep short accounts with God! Only by such detailed confession, is our fellowship with a Holy God restored as the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all our sin: “If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us [keeps on cleansing] from all sin” 1 John 1:7.

This means that, the moment ‘a hasty word falls from my lips,’ or ‘a thought of lust crosses my mind,’ or the comment, ‘it is not fair!’ reveals my self-pity and I should immediately confess each specific sin and truly repent in my heart before His Holy Presence. Then, by the fresh infilling of His Spirit, daily confession of conscious sins and daily cleansing by His precious Blood, will prepare the way for a fresh daily infilling of fellowship through the Spirit:

“Be ye always being filled (empowered) with the Holy Spirit: Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord: Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God” Ephesians 5:18-21.

Live the abundant life of a living fellowship with Him Who is our Life!
