

When facing daily testing—whether social; financial; the lust of the flesh, or even the loss of a loved one—it is vital that we should, “walk by faith, not by sight” 2 Corinthians 5:7. In Christ, we can appropriate the fact that we have been, “raised up together, and made to sit together with Him in heavenly places” Ephesians 2:6.

When Peter stepped out of the fishing boat to walk on water, the stormy waves that threatened Peter were already under the feet of Jesus. From this perspective, faith rejoices in that everything is under the feet of Jesus and therefore under our feet also, because as a believer, we are already in Him!

We do not fight a fight that could be lost, but we are to enjoy a victory in our Risen Lord, which He alone has secured for us! We can either live by faith or die by unbelief. Because the ‘born-again’ believer is already ‘in Him’ and, because the waves that are under His feet must therefore be under our feet, it is essential that in our life of faith, we be willing to triumphantly reign in Him! “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ ... to the praise of His glory, who first trusted in Christ” Ephesians 1:3, 6.

From my perspective of reigning, “in life by One, Jesus Christ” (Romans 5:17) do I understand the necessity to live on top of every situation? Am I willing to ‘quit my trying’ and trust Him as I walk by faith? Can I praise Him that the most impossible situation is already under His victorious feet? Amen!
